

Forensics Tournament

November 09, 2013

Round One: The Government's interest in promoting public health is more important than the public's freedom to scarf down trans fatty acids.

Round Two: Freedom of Speech is being undervalued in the war against bullying.

Round Three: The USFG should legalize and tax the recreational use of marijuana in America.

Round Four: The USFG should take dramatic steps to curb gun violence in America.

Bronze Round: Hilary Clinton would make a better choice as Presidential nominee for the Democrats than would Secretary of State John Kerry.

Gold/Silver: In this instance, the USFG should more closely emulate policies of the People's Republic of China.

Bonus Round 1: The United States Congress is failing the American People and should be significantly reformed.

Bonus Round 2. Intercollegiate academic debate should be significantly reformed.

Bonus Round 3: The United States military budget should be substantially reduced to help restore America's financial stability.
