

CONGRESS TOPICS YFL #4

A Bill to Make Internet Gambling a Federal Crime

WHEREAS, in the United States, addiction to gambling is a serious problem to not only the addict, but their families and friends as well; and

WHEREAS, the casinos themselves, whose "loss rate" is roughly 6%, are harming our economy by not only increasing the rate of poverty, but also hoarding the money that comes into the casino; and

WHEREAS, with the access of the Internet gambling it has become increasingly more difficult for the states to regulate illegal gambling; and

WHEREAS, the laws on Internet gambling are unclear and differ from state to state; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, by the Student Congress here assembled that Internet gambling be made a federal crime.

REINSTATEMENT OF THE C.C.C.

Whereas: There continues to be a rise in unemployment nationwide and,

Whereas: This unemployment continues to be a drain on both the state and National economy, and

Whereas: There are national disasters occurring annually from forest fires to Floods to weather related issues such as tornadoes and hurricanes;

Whereas: State and local services are too often strained by these demands,

Whereas: Reinstating the Civilian Conservation Corps (C.C.C.) would provide States with individuals to help in times of distress;

Therefore: Be it resolved by the Student Congress here assembled that the United States Congress reestablishes the C.C.C.
