2014 BCC Summer Invitational Tournament

Welcome to the first of hopefully several English language speech and debate tournaments. This tournament will provide students with a unique and rewarding public speaking experience. Each event will challenge students to perform research and writing, which will stimulate critical reading, writing and thinking skills. Our learning environment will be safe, highly educational and hopefully quite enjoyable for all of our participants. We welcome you to our campus and promise to provide the best possible forensics experience.

Who: Students (Grades 4-12)

3 Divisions* (per event): 4-6th, 7-8th, 9-12th

*Each division will be automatically divided into "Restricted*" and "Open." Tournament rules require at least 4 teams/participants to be enrolled for an event to run. In the event that restricted and open students are combined (at the discretion of the tournament host), separate awards will be provided to those participants.

Cost: 100,000 KRW (90,000 KRW if paid on or before June 13, 2014)

Includes; debate workshop, contest participation and light meal/snacks (& water)

What (Events): Public Forum Debate, LD Debate, Original Oratory, & Extemporaneous Speaking.

**Public Forum (Team Debate) & Lincoln Douglas (Solo Debate)****

Resolved: Schools should prioritize severe punishment over prevention programs when dealing with cyberbullying.

Extemporaneous Speaking (International):

- Eastern Europe: Russia, Ukraine & NATO (Round I)
- Middle East: Israel, Syria & Iran (Round II)
- East Asia: China, Japan, & The Koreas (Round III)
