

2014 Top Three Sweepstakes

Congratulations to all of the participants at the “Remy Wilcox Speech and Debate Tournament” at Whitman College from Oct. 31-Nov. 2nd. After thousands of debate speeches and forensics performances, the dust has settled and the Sweepstakes winners have emerged. Out of dozens of schools from all across the Northwest and Canada, a few programs showed incredible depth and truly rose to the top. Much congratulations to third place:

Joel. E. Ferris High School from Spokane, Washington.

Second place:

Eastside Catholic School from Sammamish, Washington.

and, drum roll....

.
. .
.

in First Place:

Eagle High School from Eagle, Idaho!

Huge congratulations to all the students from Eagle and their fearless leader, Herby Kojima. Great work!

Hope to see you all next year, feel free to send suggestions about the tournament for to debate@whitman.edu. Good luck to you all.