NSDA Rules

NSDA Rules for Public Forum Debate will be followed, except for whatever has been contradicted in this invitation, the tournament website, or the information packet written for this tournament. The format is considered a “crossfire” style, yet debating will be a bit more academic in focus rather than attempting to imitate the popular news program.

Debate Rules

Public Forum Debate: We will follow NSDA rules: 4-4-2-2 with 2 minutes of preparation time.

Lincoln Douglas Debate: We will follow the standard high school NSDA rules: 6-7-4-6-3 with 4 minutes of preparation time.

Eligibility

This tournament is unrestricted, so technically anyone of the appropriate grade level can enter the tournament regardless of experience; however many of our competitors will have limited debate experience. In the future we will attempt to separate by both grade level and by experience. Currently we do NOT have a “novice” division. For this tournament, there will be three “open” debate completion levels:

Elementary Division (grades 4-6), Middle School Division (grades 7-8) and High School Division (grades 9-12).

Evidence is encouraged!

Students are allowed to bring ANY research materials with them and allowed to read from printed materials. As per the tournament invite, this is a tournament that uses the public forum topic and the public forum format but with a more academic focus than is typical. Thus, the expectation is that in-depth, evidence-based debates SHOULD occur, but teams are not encouraged to just read pages of evidence without providing some context or organization to their speeches. Source citations should be similar to school.

No Electronic Retrieval

Do not access the internet during the tournament. This includes cell phones, calling friends, etc. Use what you have and use it well; however, all research should be done before the tournament. Anyone caught using the internet will be reprimanded and may be dropped from the tournament! No refund will be provided to persons dropped in this manner. If you observe someone using the internet to research, please report them to your teacher/coach. Checking your electronic device during a competition can be viewed as cheating; don't give others a reason to suspect you of cheating.

Changes to the Judging Form

The judge's ballot will be slightly altered so that each debater receives an individual score, in addition to the team score. We will be awarding speaker awards in addition to team awards, which would not be possible without modifying the ballot. This is a minor change, which will not directly impact the students' actual debating.

Parking

Parking is available in the parking lot on campus. Lot #5 will be easy to access to the debate room. Parking fee is $5 per car per day. Purchase the permit from the machine at the entrance of parking lot #5. Be sure to clearly display the parking permit on the dash of your car.
