2021 Marks Invitation

October 1-2, 2021

Colleagues,

The University of West Florida Forensics Team is pleased to host the 2021 Marks Invitational on October 1st and 2nd. This year's tournament will be a fully virtual, synchronous tournament featuring all 11 traditional individual events and IPDA debate.

Our tournament will offer a full IPDA debate tournament on Friday with elimination rounds continuing into Saturday as necessary. Saturday will feature two preliminary rounds of all 11 individual events, as well as finals rounds. We will be hosting using the 8x8 tournament platform. In the regulations below, you can find guidance on the usage of forensicstournament.net and the 8x8 tournament platform.

This year we are excited to offer a no-fee tournament. In order to offer this tournament free of charge, we will need to maintain some strict standards for judge coverage. If your program struggles to meet these standards, we will be happy to discuss options with you.

The deadline for all entries will be Monday, September 27th at 5:00 PM. If there are any questions or concerns, please don't hesitate to reach out at ablood@uwf.edu or 417-437-1437.

We look forward to seeing you in early October,

Dr. Adam Blood
Director of Forensics

IMPROMPTU: Contestants will receive short excerpts dealing with items of general interest, including political, economic, and social issues. RHETORICAL CRITICISM/COMMUNICATION ANALYSIS: Contestants will deliver an original critical analysis of any significant rhetorical artifact. The speaker should limit the quotation of, paraphrasing of, or summary of the analyzed artifact to a minimum. Any legitimate critical methodology is permissible as long as it serves to open up the artifact for the audience. Minimal notes are permitted. Maximum 10 minutes.

- 5 minute 1st Affirmative
- 2 minute Cross Examination
- 6 minute 1st Negative
- 2 minute Cross Examination

Event Rules and Regulations

Our rules conform to those provided by the AFA-NIET on individual events. Competitors may enter up to three events in each flight. All questions regarding violations of rules or other concerns during the tournament should be directed to Dr. Adam Blood at ablood@uwf.edu or 417-437-1437.

Pentathlon: Students will be eligible for pentathlon competition if they compete in at least five events across all three genres (Limited Prep, Public Address, Interpretation).

Top Novice: To be eligible for a top novice award, a student must be in the first year of competition. Novice competitors should be declared in submission of the entry and will be confirmed during tournament registration.

Judging

Since we are trying to offer a tournament with no fees, we need to have slightly modified requirements for judging. One judge will cover 6 individual events, and we ask that schools cover at least half their entry. As much as we would prefer not to, we reserve the right to cut entries prior to the tournament if there is insufficient judge coverage. We are working to provide as many volunteer judges as we can from our pool of volunteer faculty and graduate students, as well as anyone I beg to give up a few hours on a Saturday. If there are extenuating circumstances affecting your ability to cover your entry, please contact me as soon as possible.

Online Competition

We will be using Forensicstournament.net, with their 8x8 tournament platform. For any guidance on how to use this function, please see www.forensicstournament.net. They also have an incredibly helpful set of videos on YouTube at

As competition continues this season, we will try to uphold much of what learned from virtual competition from the 2020-2021 season. Below is a series of rough guidelines for judging and competing in an online environment.

- Students are to be evaluated on the strength of content and delivery in their events. Issues with audiovisual production value should not enter into the evaluation of speakers. Many students will be speaking using whatever recording equipment they have available. We have made each competition round 90 minutes in case there are interruptions in connectivity or online access.
- Some students will deliver their presentation sitting down. We believe that it should be up to the student to determine what is best for them in the situation.
- Some students may have been able to acquire and assemble black books for their interpretation events. Again, we hope to accommodate a wide array of circumstances for students, so this should not positively or negatively affect their evaluation.
- Both competitors and judges should do the best they can to participate using the most reliable technology and internet access they can acquire.
- Competitors and judges should participate from an area that is as distraction-free as possible.
- All participants in the activity should please silence alerts or other audio that can distract a judge or competitor.
- All participants should mute themselves when not speaking.
- E-ballots should, as much as possible, include constructive feedback that both emphasizes the speakers' strengths, as well as actions that could improve their performances.
- While we cannot be together in person, the etiquette for audience members should still be observed. If you are visible on video, either as a competitor/audience member or judge, please be mindful of nonverbal behaviors and possible distractions.

All entries should be submitted through Forensicstournament.net by Monday, September 27th at 5:00 P.M. All drops/changes should be submitted by Wednesday September 29th at 5:00 p.m.
