A Resolution to Ban the Advertising of Violent Video Games

1 WHEREAS, Modern technology, including virtual reality and the metaverse, has made games 2 more lifelike over time; and

3 WHEREAS, Advertisements for videogames are not always preceded by warnings to the 4 viewers about violence or potential triggers, and tend to fail to allow sufficient time for 5 potential viewers to avoid viewing harmful content; and

6 WHEREAS, Video games in which war or violence is being depicted can be triggering to 7 those with P.T.S.D. from real battles, veterans, and persons sensitive to violence; and

8 WHEREAS, Violent actions in video games may normalize violence in real life; now, 9 therefore be it

10 RESOLVED, By the Congress here assembled that all advertisements for video games be 11 banned from depicting potentially triggering images of war, combat, or violence, or audio 12 from combat or guns firing.

A Bill to Support the Shift to Sustainable Energy

1 BE IT ENACTED BY THE CONGRESS HERE ASSEMBLED THAT:

2 SECTION 1. Fossil fuel companies will receive performance-based grants to shift away 3 from fossil fuel energy production to renewable energy production.

4 SECTION 2. Fossil fuel energy shall be defined as any oil, natural gas, or coal energy.
5 Renewable energy shall be defined as wind, hydro, solar, geothermal, and bioenergy.

6 Performance-based grants will be given based on the percent change of energy production 7 from fossil fuels to renewable energy.

8 SECTION 3. The Department of the Interior (DOI), the Energy Information
9 Administration (EIA), and the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) shall be responsible 10 for the implementation of this legislation.

11 The DOI and the EIA shall work together to monitor the companies' shift to renewable energy 12 and determine the allocation of the grants. If a company uses the grants improperly, they shall 13 be retracted and the company will not be eligible for receiving grants for one (1) year.

14 The EPA shall be responsible for ensuring that companies are engaging in best practices for 15 shifting to renewable energy.

16 SECTION 4. This legislation shall come into effect 6 months upon passage. All laws in 17 conflict with this legislation are hereby declared null and void.
