

Crossman Invitational

November 4-5, 2023

Greetings Colleagues:

The El Camino forensics coaches and students are pleased to invite you to the Crossman Invitational on the campus of El Camino College. The tournament is open to both two- and four-year schools.

To get your students the maximum experience, NPDA will run from Saturday through early Sunday with 5 prelims, going to true finals. If entries warrant, we will offer 3 divisions. There will be two IPDA tournaments: one Saturday and one Sunday. NFA-LD, and IEs will run Sunday. IPDA and NFA-LD will have 4 prelims in 2 divisions and utilize the bronze/silver/gold format. 11 Individuals Events will have 2 prelims in 2 divisions to finals.

Students can enter NPDA and either IEs, LD, or IPDA. Or, students could enter or IPDA and IEs or LD. Or could enter two separate IPDA tournaments.

LOCATION. The El Camino College address is 16007 Crenshaw Blvd., Torrance, CA 905056, right off the 405 freeway at the Crenshaw exit. For directions, visit <http://www.elcamino.edu/about/directions.asp>. The tournament headquarters will be MU 132. The Music Building faces Redondo Beach Blvd., near the corner of Redondo Beach Blvd. and Crenshaw Blvd.

PARKING. Attendees should park in Lots J or K (Closest to the Music and Social Science buildings). These are staff parking lots BUT you are allowed to park there on the weekend for free!

FOOD. Breakfast, lunch and snacks will be provided for judges on Saturday and Sunday; snacks and water will be provided for students. There are multiple close locations from which to purchase food.

RULES AND ELIGIBILITY. Generally, all events will follow PSCFA guidelines. In NPDA, Wi-Fi and prep rooms will be provided and topic will be centrally announced and flex time will be recognized. A novice is defined as a competitor with no significant high school experience, is in his or her first two semesters of competition, who has not advanced to elimination rounds at more than two tournaments in NPDA or IPDA, or taken 1st, 2nd, or 3rd place twice in IEs. A junior competitor is one who has not competed for more than four semesters, and who has not advanced to elimination rounds in junior division at more than two tournaments in NPDA or IPDA. We adhere to the NPDA policy on gender/sexual harassment.

ELECTRONIC USE POLICY IN DEBATE. In accordance with NPDA Bylaws, and mirrored by PSCFA, electronic/laptop flowing by debaters in a round allowed; however, the device must be on airplane mode to prevent the sharing of documents in the round. Additionally, during preparation time, copying and pasting previously prepared material is not allowed. All material brought into the debate must be typed by the debaters during prep time.

AWARDS Trophies will be awarded to 1st, 2nd, and 3rd/Gold, Silver, Bronze place winners in all events. Speaker awards will be given in NPDA for the top three speakers in each division. The top three institutions in both 2- and 4-year divisions receive trophies. The PSCFA formula will be used to determine standings and El Camino will be ineligible for sweeps. All awards will be announced at the awards ceremony on Sunday night.

All entries are due by 6:00pm on Tuesday, October 31, 2023 on <http://www.forensicstournament.net>
Changes can be made through Wednesday, November 1st at 6:00pm, at which time fees, including hired judge fees, will be set.

We hope to see you all here!

Fees and Judging

Fees

$25.00 SCHOOL FEE

$12.00 PER I.E. SLOT

$14.00 PER DUO TEAM

$50.00 PER PARLI DEBATE TEAM

$25.00 PER IPDA/LD SLOT

Judging Commitment

Each school must provide a qualified judge for every two NPDA, IPDA, or NFA entries, and for every 5 slots, or part thereof, for IEs. Schools must have enough judges to cover their entry in each division they are entered in (i.e. If a school has open entries, they must have enough judges eligible to judge in the open division to cover their open division entries).

Uncovered Judging Fees, if allowed

We cannot guarantee that you can buy out; you must do whatever possible to cover your entry and if that is not possible, contact the tournament for permission to buy out. If we can find the judges to allow you to buy out, the fees will be as follows:

$175.00 PER UNCOVERED NPDA TEAM

$125.00 PER IPDA OR NFA ENTRY

$25.00 PER UNCOVERED I.E. SLOT

Schools whose judges do not pick up their ballots will be charged $20 per ballot.

Payment

Invoices will be mailed to DOFs on the Sunday of the tournament. Payment may be made through PayPal or by check.

PayPal account: @francescabishop2485 IMPORTANT NOTE: if your fees are over $595, please make multiple payments as this is a personal account being used for tournament payments; the IRS will assess the owner of the account if a payment is over $600.

Please make checks payable to El Camino College and write "Speech and Debate" on the memo line. Bring to tournament or mail to ECC c/o Francesca Bishop, Communication Studies.
