

1. Click on the Network icon in the system tray, located near the clock at the bottom right side of the screen.

2. Select UCM-Guest, then click "Connect".

3. A window will appear indicating that the computer is Connecting to UCM-Guest.

When this process finishes, the box will disappear and it will be connected.

4. After connection, you must open a browser and a splash page will open.

